CALIFORNIA

LOCAL ROSTER OF BOARDS, COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES FISCAL YEAR 2020-2021

CITY COUNCIL COMMITTEES

City Council Committees are designed as a forum for more detailed reporting or discussion regarding policy direction, program and budget priorities, and oversight than can be accomplished, due to time constraints, at regular City Council meetings on specific areas of City responsibility. Only City Council members serve as voting members on City Council Committees, with membership limited to less than a quorum of the full City Council (up to two members). Committee meeting agendas are publicly noticed, and the public is welcome to attend the meetings. Recommendations from City Council Committees must be reviewed and considered by the full City Council for final consideration/action.

Budget and Governance Committee	Meets Quarterly
Community Services Committee	Meets Monthly
Public Safety Committee	Meets Monthly
Public Works Committee	Meets Monthly
Sustainability Committee	Meets Every Two Months
Transportation Committee ¹	Meets Monthly

PLANNING COMMISSION & HOUSING ADVISORY AND APPEALS BOARD

The Planning Commission and the Housing Advisory and Appeals Board (which consists solely of Planning Commissioners) are community advisory bodies that also have some independent regulatory powers, with some, but not all, decisions subject to City Council review or appeal. These bodies are listed in the City's Local Roster of Boards, Commissions and Committees, but have separate rules and procedures/by-laws than the community advisory bodies described below.

COMMUNITY ADVISORY COMMITTEES (STANDING AND AD HOC COMMITTEES)

Community Advisory Committees are a structured way for community members to share their opinions and perspectives, study issues, develop policy and/or program recommendations, and provide feedback regarding City initiatives in a focused, small group structure, and are thus an integral part of furthering public participation in government. Community Advisory Committees have community members as voting Members. All meetings are publicly noticed, and the public is welcome to attend the meetings. City Council members may attend advisory body meetings to observe, but not participate in the discussion, deliberation, or vote on any item within the subject matter jurisdiction of such bodies. Recommendations by Community Advisory Committees are forwarded to the City Council. Community Advisory Committee recommendations may only be approved by a majority of the full City Council.

Standing Committees

Standing Committees are “permanent” committees designed for community input on issues that are relatively broad in scope.
